

Transliteration of the Channeling "Humanity" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on September 30, 2021

"Be blessed, you beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. Before we would like to go into our announcement today, into the subject of humanity, we would like to make a little bit of reference to what is happening at this time, to the body structures. We know that it is very, very difficult for all of you. The small and big ailments are getting stronger and stronger, because of course the energy frequency is increasing more and more and therefore a restructuring is taking place on the physical level, in all areas. Ultimately, there is no area that is not transforming at the moment. For you, it is still a matter of constantly, repeatedly, bringing attention to the body in order to supply the body with great energy. As we have pointed out many times before, the fact is that ultimately you are mostly only in your heads. And right now you are waging the purest warfare in your minds and this has additional negative consequences for the body structure. Be it bones, tendons, tissues, at the moment everything is in upheaval. And your bodies have to deal with very many environmental influences and also that which was caused by the poison, which is actually in the air in the truest sense of the word.

Beloved children in the light. Nevertheless, today we would like to explicitly address the issue of humanity. The subject of humanity, of course, refers to ensouled human beings, because only an ensouled being can ultimately be called human.

At the moment it is the case that due to the changes that are taking place, the wheat is more or less being separated from the chaff. You will learn more and more that the leader levels in almost all countries are no longer purely human. Either they have sold their souls or they have psychotic, psychopathic traits, narcissistic traits, Machiavellian traits, which in the end cannot really go along with a pure human family.

Beloved children in the light. What does it mean. Every soul that has a connection to the Divine Source - and every soul has a connection to the Divine Source - has the heart qualities that it carries within it. These are: Love to receive and love to give, compassion and the hands to bless and heal.

The entities that are among you, which have no compassion and cannot feel any compassion, are in the truest sense of the word unsouled. Either, as already said, because they have gotten rid of their soul, because they have sold it, or because they are partly entities that are unsouled. The human family as such, if you want to call it the human family in the entire universe, is present in many different levels of the universe. Every animate being is imprinted with compassion. Soulfulness always means to carry the Divine Spark within oneself, not to have lost the connection to the Divine Source. Through the poisons, however, the following happens that very many soul parts are split off. This means that many people become more unempathetic, even if there is still a small Divine spark in them. Here it is really about living humanity. For the others, it's about remaining in compassion. Not living the arrogance, some are the stupid ones and others are the smart ones. No matter from which side, it is really about maintaining compassion, interacting with each other free from arrogance.

Every day more and more people are waking up. Every day people feel that finally a wake-up call has begun, that something is going very differently than it has been going so far. The indoctrinated children and young people need special help. Especially the children and young people, because they have the greatest problems or they have suffered the greatest damage. Consider how long a year used to be for you when you were smaller. How long it took for your birthday or Christmas to come. And now consider how long the children have had to act in this play. Put yourselves in front of the children. Protect the children. With everything you have. With all the energy you can muster. And that is why it is of such great, great importance that you begin to seek connection so frequently and so strongly, to let it flow, to energize your body, to ultimately muster the power and the strength to say "No!" with every cell of your entire being, to stand up, free of fear. Where there are no victims, there can be no more perpetrators. The inner attitude, free from victimhood, gives up the limitation on the outside.

If the soul vibrates high enough, any form of darkness will stay very far away for fear of being transformed. Remember that the light of humanity, of the soul, always dissolves darkness. Where there is light, there can be no shadow.

This means that the more you go into your spiritual awakening, the more you accept the new energies, the more you can let these energies flow freely in your body, the easier and simpler it will be. And even though you think you are few, you are many, many more, and you are worldwide. Instead of getting upset about what you see on the news or in the alternative media, take the time to actually raise the energies within you to the point where you clearly say, "Stop, this far and not one step further!" This combined with trust in God is the greatest protection you can imagine from the darkness. Because no entity, no matter how supposedly powerful, from the darkness will dare to come near such a conscious soul. To make a very clear statement, to say very clearly "Up to here and not a step further!". To accept that a change is coming, but to stop waiting, but to transform with it.

Beloved children. Of course you will get all the support you can imagine. And the changes, especially now in the fall months and winter, will be severe. More truths will come out every day, and it has already begun. But nevertheless, the human family is in great demand. The human family that gives birth to humanity.

But even the awakened ones are full of anger toward those who are asleep. Those who are asleep cannot even get out of their little circle because they are vibrating in fear. Fear, which in turn feeds the darkness, and fear, which paralyzes. It is actually the case that there are very many animals that play dead in a panic or fear situation, in a deadly danger. This playing dead is ultimately nothing more than being paralyzed.

Many, many people have turned away from the Divine Energy, from the Original Source so far and have tried to replace it with other ideals, supposedly, as we have already said in other announcements, supposed prominence, leadership levels, politicians or whatever. The desire to be rich, powerful, beautiful, and special has ultimately led so many people over centuries, even millennia, to live in such a great limitation that being purely human has fallen a bit to the back. But, for some time now, and this has been in process for a bit longer, it is becoming stronger and stronger, it is being lived human again. Therefore, we would like to ask you today, connect with the people. Reach out your hand. Be upright and strong.

Live the Divine Spark, live the Divine Power. Let it flow out through each of your cells. Change the world, help the planet. The time is NOW! It has already begun. The upheaval is underway, the revelations are coming. And never forget one thing: no one who has participated in crimes against humanity, crimes against humanity, will escape God's judgment. Nevertheless, more people are needed. More awakened people are needed. It is ultimately the tipping point that is still missing. But nevertheless, it is imminent.

Tipping the scales means also giving an answer to the people who are still unconscious when asked. The awakened ones so often end up thinking, "I don't bother anymore. Let them do what they want. I don't want to harm them, I don't want any more discussions." What restriction is worth it, what inconvenience is worth saving a human life? Everyone should answer this question for themselves. Live truthfulness. Carry the Divine Presence into the world. Give up the role of victim. Come into action. Clarity. Energy on the body level. These are the keys that will ultimately help wake others up with. Clear statements. Not thinking for the others. But when the question comes, give clear answers. A discussion or anger can only intensify if both participate. If one remains calm, remains in the Divine connection, this cannot happen.

Beloved children. The war is already raging. And yet you are protected. And yet you can go on living seemingly normally. Is it not a small miracle? But stand up. Stand up for the little ones. For the children, for the youth, for the innocent. For the old who cannot defend themselves. Stand up, make it public. The truth cannot be stopped. Truth is a precious, rare plant, so immensely strong that it will outlast everything. More and more energy is needed for the lie, but the truth is simply true and simply exists.

Beloved children in the light. Many of you are taking more time to look within, even if it is not quite enough. And we say this partly with a smirk, because we know that you have more than enough supposed stress in the daily business, in the daily work routine, but nevertheless, if you are honest and put down the cell phone or put down other media and turn off the television, and this does not only mean the news programs, but also the series, what keeps you in this continuous loop – to instead seek out nature, to connect, to seek exchange with people. To go into communication again, to live humanity again.

Beloved children in the light. Each soul of you is so infinitely powerful.

You are great. You are unique. You have a light to carry into the world that only you can carry into the world. You are so powerful. You can carry the light of God, you alone can carry the light of God into the world. And as long as you believe and as long as you don't give up and as long as you have faith in God, the whole power of divinity is behind you.

Trust in God is more than the word actually implies. God-trust means the certainty of being part of a great whole. Trusting in God means knowing that you can never fall lower than in God's hand. But trusting in God also means acting for oneself. To stand up for what is right and also for God. For the world, for humanity, for love.

Beloved children in the light. You are not alone. But every single soul counts. Everyone who wakes up inside, who takes the time to send the light of God into the earth, into the planet, into the people, who can let it flow freely, helps others to wake up.

Beloved children in the light. The upheaval has already begun. Much, much more is happening than you can perceive. But the battle is still raging. But everyone who wakes up and also wakes up energetically accordingly helps to make the light bigger faster. That is why we invite you: Send the light of divinity into the world, and this can only be done by inspired beings. You have all the support you need, but start putting yourselves before the children, before the innocent, before the old. Start living personal responsibility. And begin to say "No!" "No" from the heart, of God given free will. A God-given birthright, the free will to live, not only in your head, but with your whole being.

Beloved children. We are by your side. Call us, ask for our support. We can intervene only if you invite us. And it is our task to support you, to protect you. But we cannot be in the same place as a being who is vibrating in fear, anxiety, anger, hatred, envy and resentment. Love is what protects you and what enables us to put our energy over you.

Be aware that this world will rise. This world will rise. Nothing can stop it. The process has already begun. The faster and the more you are, the faster the way goes. And know that you are infinitely loved. We bless you in the infinite love and goodness of the Divine Omnipotence, Now and Always and so be it.”
