

Transliteration of the Channeling "Ancestors" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on November 26, 2022

"Be blessed, you beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. Today, before we come to our actual topic, which will be about the ancestors or the ancestral lineage, we would like to address what many, many people ask again and again.

What is happening? What is happening to me? What is happening to my environment?

What is happening to my being? What is actually happening?

Why are the transformation pains necessary? Or why are they happening at all? Why does my body not always function the way I want it to?

Beloved Children of Light. The present energies, which day by day are becoming a bit stronger, more intense, mean nothing other than what we already explained, that a recall, a call, an unlocking of every single cell in your body is taking place. That, which has held the earth in a net of darkness in the end, has held in a kind of captivity, will withdraw more and more, because it can be fed no more so strongly by the dark forces, because day by day the demonic entities is reduced. GOD already begins to intervene. December will become very intensive. Therefore have confidence, have courage. And take the times which you need. And each of you will have enough free times. Use the times of housekeeping for contemplation, for meditation, for deep breathing. Use the times that you might otherwise fritter away just being entertained by the outside, by television or media of any kind, cell phone, internet or whatever. Try to take advantage of those times. Seek out nature.

The pains of the transformation process, which one or the other perceives more and more, only take place because you have resistances. Resistances in your thought structures. The soul would be ready full of enthusiasm. But the mind, the thinker, the corrupted mind, so to speak, has its difficulties with change.

Humans are prone to habit. To celebrate the habit, to live the habit and yet to long for the unusual. At present, the unusual will happen more and more. The world will be awakening more and more.

Beloved children. You know that the food, the sky, the air, the water, all kinds of things will still have very unhealthy additives. Alone for the reason to weaken the people, to weaken the mankind so far that the dark plan can still be enforced. This will not happen! The light has won! No matter what will be done in the outside, and they will do the next time everything in their power to raise as much fear, anger, rage, hatred, whatever darkness is possible, in the people. Especially fear, of course. They will try to "take" as many souls as possible. They will try to keep their energetic feeding flocks on a level, so to speak, or take them with them, to make sure that you are stuck in the lower levels. As you begin to ascend into the 4th dimension slowly but surely.

Beloved children in the light. The powerful being of the soul, which stirs more and more in each one of you, the power of change, the adventure of life, which the soul wants to perceive with all facets, begins Now!

The next weeks and months - and here it should be said that we strongly advise against planning any trips for the next half year - it means to be at home in the power and strength, in the areas where you feel safe and secure. Everyone will be in the place that is best for them. But think carefully about whether it is really necessary, at this particular time, when the darkness is trying to throw so many knives, flames or whatever, to kill people, to hold people captive, to further enslave people.

The awakening process we are talking about means every cell is awakening. The conversion to what is called "The Galactic Man" in many New Age channels, simply means the recall to being human as such. Despite the fact that as many things have been poisoned, air, water, earth, whatever, you feel or notice that the earth is reclaiming more energy bit by bit, reclaiming more strength bit by bit. The flowers have been stronger the last time. The growth of lawn or flowers or trees has increased.

The population of birds became stronger. The insects have also increased more again. This is because, as said, many dark entities that have enslaved the Earth have already been taken out of the game. Not all of them yet. And above all, what is even more dangerous, the level below, which does not really know what it is doing, because its intelligence is not even sufficient for that. Because only those who are very simple-minded, have very little compassion, are very narcissistic or psychopathic, could be kept so long by the darkness at all. Any souled being would not have gone in for such deals at all.

Nevertheless, it means that it is of great importance to remain in the power, in the strength, to rest within, to dwell within. Not in your head! In your hearts, in your souls, to connect, so to speak, stronger and further with the soul, so that it has more and more say. The physical structures, the physical pains, bones, still tissues, inflammations or whatever, means nothing else than that the head starts to take up the fight against the actual being. Because the thinker, the corrupted consciousness, so to speak, is afraid of disappearing, is afraid of giving itself up. The artificial instance that was created, that could be manipulated so wonderfully by the darkness, doesn't want to break away and at the moment partly puts itself like a child that holds its hands in front of its eyes in the hope not to be seen.

Mental hygiene is of such extreme importance so that the emotions, the energy structures, the energy waves in the body can change, that the darkness can dissolve in each of you. It's really and truly about transforming, letting go of everything negative. Sometimes it's so much easier to blame karma or say to the ancestors, so to speak, you carry this for the whole ancestral generation. "I took this from my father," "I took this from my mother," "My grandmother was like that too." That is a form of excuse for many people. Therefore, we would like to go into what the ancestral lineage is in the first place, or what the ancestral lineage means in the first place.

Many of you have turned away from the ancestors. Especially here, in the European area or especially in Germany, it is the case that you have despised your ancestors for what ultimately went out from Germany, so to speak, in the last, in the past century.

You have not dealt with the German spot on earth, you have tried to deny being German. You have tried to accept that you are "to blame".

Beloved children in the light, for one thing: Who still wants to blame the ancestors in any form about what happened in the past, why so many have gone along, then look out! Look, where you have taken part. Look where you did not have the courage, and this is not a reproach, but only a statement. And now it is about being courageous! Now it is about being strong! To let the Divine Spark come to life to the extent that the power and the strength comes from within.

The often asked question why it takes so long is: to take as many people as possible with us, to take them into the New Era. And it is checked exactly when it would tip over. Have faith that the absolutely right time will be chosen according to the level of consciousness of humanity, where there will be the least collateral damage.

Beloved children in the light. As we explained some time ago, the butterfly and the chick need the pressure from within, the effort, to go into a new life. And so it is with every soul that awakens. The point now is that the pressure on the outside or in the shell, in the package, in the cocoon, increases so much because of the inner growth that you need to break free. And this self-liberation that takes place in each individual - in some a little more, in others a little less - means nevertheless the acceptance of your own power, your own strength, your own creativity.

There is no excuse for not going into strength and into power, because it is only a matter of attitude! Because it's just a matter of reconciling and not blaming anyone on the outside, including yourself, because of the fact that if a shortcoming has manifested in you, so to speak, or has manifested in the ancestral line, be certain that you have chosen that ancestral line to resolve the karma or to help, to assist in the resolution of the karma of that ancestral line.

For those of you who do not have children, know that you have then chosen to completely dissolve that one part of the lineage that you represent.

For those of you who have children, you can decide whether the female principle or the male principle is greater. If the female principle, i.e. there are more daughters, you can assume that you are trying to live more emotionality, to live more feeling and to try to dissolve, to transform the entangled emotions of the ancestral line. If the boys are in the foreground, if there are more boys in an ancestral line, it means nothing other than that the mental structures are being reconsidered and changed in order to be dissolved. Keep in mind, the bottom line is one. It is the thought that starts, the mental structure that triggers an emotion. A state of being in the body. The soul only knows emotions, like love, joy, gratitude, happiness. Everything else is made by the mind and is lived out through the emotional.

Beloved children in the light. The most active timeline at the moment has slowed down again one step. Nevertheless, more truth will now pour into the world every day. There will be days when it will be blow by blow. There will be days when it will go slower due to the fact that it is always seen how the collective consciousness of humanity can go along. There will be countries like in South America that are so in their power, in their strength, in their love, in their certainty not to accept this, not to accept this fraud any longer, not to accept this enslavement any longer, that will make the first domino fall, so to speak. It will be a succession of events that will always get a little crazier, a little more violent, a little more intense. But for those who are prepared, a form of liberation. Piece by piece you will be "activated" into the new power, to put it this way, so that you can accept this power and this strength.

The most lost time is the time when you only get upset with others, when you only look for the blame in others. Everything that is mirrored to you is a reflection of the unconscious in you, which is now being worked through piece by piece, is being transformed further and thus comes into change.

There are ancestral lines that always deal with the subject of jealousy. There was a lot of deceit and fraud in the past, this wants to be looked at. Then there is the ancestral line, where simply only fears were lived, this also wants to be dissolved. The ancestral lineages, which are the lived victims, so to speak, this also wants to be looked at and dissolved, transformed into a new time, into a new life.

Again the hint: Dissolving happens by allowing emotions, observing them, not jumping into them, not letting yourself sink into them or not sinking into these emotions, but about allowing it and transforming it, making this emotion again into Creator Power. This of course happens through love!

If you want to know how to get through the next time: By feeling as much love within yourself as you possibly can! Those, who are more awake, will be allowed or will have to reach out to one or the other. Keep in mind here that you can help only those people who really can/want to accept help! And accept that this form of the change which is now at the coming, is at the emergence, is so to speak the abyss at which you stand. A person who slips at a precipice will be in despair. Unless he is in God-trust and thus immortal, so to speak.

Beloved children. We feel your sorrow, we feel your pain, we feel your despair. Especially due to the fact that so many people in your environment have allowed themselves to be dictated, so to speak, with full consciousness into the pain, into the fear, into the injection. There will be massive failures here, and as a result, certain structures of the infrastructure will of course be affected. But the cohesion of the Germanic peoples, of the Germanic peoples, of the human peoples, is very great, if you will allow it.

Every ancestral line has its lightful and its dark moments. First of all, reconcile with your parents. Father or mother, sometimes also aunts and uncles. Long for it, reconcile yourselves! Allow change to come, allow reconciliation to take place. And we are talking about reconciliation and not about justice, that is the second stage.

Now, if any people come and ask you to apologize, be generous. But if they have committed crimes against humanity, it is not about being generous, it is about consequences!

God's mills grind slowly, but justly.

It is about the fact that a "stop!" must be given. Because what is not cleaned up now, the children or the children's children or the generation after would have to experience again. Now! is the time where these whole structures should be rolled up and dissolved and transformed and will be as well.

It is literally a matter of living one's own power, one's own strength in all levels to such an extent that ultimately one can consistently feel the Divine Spark. This is the task of the next time. This is the actual being! And it is about the fact that exactly this is needed now, on all levels. It is about the fact that the power and the strength, which is inherent in every soul, is allowed to step out now, and also should. It is about showing you!

For the next months it will still be extremely difficult. But nevertheless, one of the biggest anchors besides love is humor. Before you get really angry, start being so mindful that as soon as you feel the anger or rage come up in you, the transformation is pushed, it is allowed to observe, allow the emotion to come up and then transform it into love. Now reconcile with the ancestral lines! The power and the strength of the ancestral lineage. Every ancestor of every soul has led to the fact that you are here now, that you are incarnated now, to put an end to this goings-on once and for all. To dissolve this dark, dark time or Dark Age that you are in once and for all and actually begin the Golden Era.

Reconcile with mother, with father, reconcile with uncle, aunt, grandparent, whatever, using Ho'oponopono, the high power of the Hawaiian forgiveness ceremony, simply by saying:

"I'm sorry. Please forgive me. I love you. Thank you."

And it doesn't matter whether this ceremony is spoken by the offender or the victim. It's just about initiating that transformation, resolving it. To dissolve does not mean "to forget." To dissolve only means: it has no more power over each individual - it has no more power over you. And, above all, also engage with the Divine Source, the Creator, the Omnipotence, whatever you want to call the source of all being, don't get hung up on names. The Bible is not bad, even if many parts have been taken out or are not one hundred percent true. But there are many truths in it. That applies to the Koran, that applies to the teachings of Hinduism, the Vedic scriptures, that applies to everything. Free yourself from what should or should not be believed, free yourself from what you are supposedly allowed or not allowed to believe now. Stop with the black and white thinking!

But nevertheless, forgiveness means only letting go. Means deciding that a past has no more power over you! No more deed. That you are no longer a victim. It does not mean "forgetting." It doesn't mean to just put a blanket over it and let it gather down, but it actually means that consequences are needed.

The beings who did the worst must and should and will be held responsible! Personal responsibility is an issue, but one has also responsibility for other people, in the interpersonal. And everyone who commits fraud, everyone who takes advantage of another, does the worst to him, whatever, has this responsibility for himself but also for his actions. It can't just be business as usual and it won't be business as usual. Not without bringing the lowest up.

Beloved child in the light. With every breath, feel all the love of the Creator within you. Feel your power, your might, your strength. Allow yourself to feel this.

Feel the connection and feel the power of your ancestors who have gone through much to make your life possible.

Thousands of people who have been born, lived, died to give your energy the opportunity to incarnate.

Respect the ancestors, reconcile with the ancestors. Accept the suffering and the shame and the pressure through which they have passed in captivity of the enslavement of the last century, indeed of the last millennium.

And see that which you are: the power that brings change.

Behold your own power and strength.

But no longer blame the ancestors alone, but embrace your power by seeing yourself as part of this group and simply being the part that changes it now, that transforms it now, that brings it into the light now, that brings it into love now.

You are powerful! You are loved! You are the special energy that has gone through so many incarnations. You have earned your place, so to speak, in the front row of the ascension process, the end of the Dark Age and the beginning of the Golden Age!

Beloved child. Begin to bloom! Like a rose. And one says, "The rose that blooms in winter is the sign of eternal love." Be you the rose that blooms in winter!

Be the love that brings change in this world!

Let go, be free!

Be in your heart! Be in your power!

And be with every step, with every word, with every breath in connection to the Divine Omnipotence!

And the end will come faster than you can imagine, the change that brings the end, and what brings the new beginning, the birth of the New Era. It has already begun. Feel it in every fiber of your being.

And know that all beings, which were appointed by GOD to support and accompany you, are at your side! We are with you! Just like the omnipotence itself.

Beloved child. You are the beginning - You are the way - You are the end - You are the goal!

You are the one who actually lives the word of GOD!

Be blessed in the light of the Divine omnipotence, now and all time and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
