

Transliteration of the Channeling "Visions" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on February 27, 2022

"Be blessed you beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children of light, we would like to speak to you today about "visions".

Before we come to this topic, we would like to talk about what themes or what universal energies are currently working on you to bring you to the next levels of consciousness.

Beloved Children. As we have already explained to you, these are wake-up calls that are affecting your entire system, so to speak. The energy increases on Earth will continue to increase because the entire planet will ascend, into the 5th dimension. There have already been peoples who have ascended into the 5th dimension, however the planet itself has never ascended into the 5th dimension. This event is "gigantic," so to speak. Therefore, it is necessary that the energy structures in each individual human being increase to such an extent that any limitations can be abandoned in order to raise this very vibrational frequency and thus to cope with this ascension.

This, of course, has a very strong effect on the entire physical structure at this time. All limitations will be dissolved in time and the people who decide to go through this process and to cope with the ascension will need a lot of peace and a lot of time to go within, to finally increase the inner power and the inner strength in such a way - the trust in God, the love, the connection to the soul itself - so that this process simply takes place.

At the moment very strong energies are acting on you, which especially affect your joints, actually your whole organism, expand your whole system and furthermore new information, which is also given to you through visions, so to speak.

Beloved children in the light. Of course, we would also like to address the current situation on Earth. The darkness is still fighting for every single "gain" and should it still be so small. What is happening at present is not the cause for concern that you imagine.

What if - various events had to take place in order to ultimately prevent greater acts of violence from coming about?

What if - there were places on earth, in certain districts, certain areas, certain countries, where the power of darkness is so great that a great deal of evil can arise. This evil must ultimately be taken out for the protection of all mankind.

Ultimately, many energy structures have been created, which have also caused a leap in consciousness in people who want to serve for the benefit of humanity. Therefore to you again the hint: Do not be afraid!

Everything follows a larger plan. The divine omnipotence itself has brought this plan on the way, or better said, has staged it. Many of you will hear some form of wake-up call on different levels, in different situations.

At this time, we would just like you to know that the visions that are coming to you are mainly in the form of supposed geographical/geometric figures that are taking place in front of your Third Eye with your eyes closed. Lightful structures that move, sometimes backed with color, sometimes made of pure light only. These structures correspond to the soul language. It is information that the soul perceives very, very well and empowers the soul to become stronger. And you will feel this call further and stronger. This call means nothing else than that you should be brought to your highest potential and also want to be brought! You, who have incarnated here, have all decided to go this way on one side or the other. There are of course people, and there are not a few, who will not yet follow this call.

This will happen at another time, perhaps in another part of the universe, in another dimension. These people will say goodbye. But we want to point out to you that it is a homecoming. A homecoming to the origin. And we know that you will feel a lot of sadness, but ultimately energy cannot be created, energy cannot be destroyed, energy can only be transformed - so the existence of death as you know it is completely impossible.

Nothing that was created by the Divine Power, nothing ensouled, can be lost. We want you to be very aware of this and never forget it!

Beloved children. Visions are much more extensive than what you imagine. Not only the images and the impressions you get. Sometimes you have visions from other times, often especially in dreams they are also a form of visions that you experience. And we would like to invite you today to create new visions! And we deliberately say "create" because ultimately the focus on how the world wants to be or how the world could be or how you want the world to be is ultimately what you can create through your visions, through your imaginations.

Beloved children. This process is so vast and so infinite that you should really take your time! Take time for nature - and we know we are repeating ourselves - take time for contemplation, take time for going within, for meditation, for energy work in any form. It is indispensable that you prepare yourselves! Prepared to grow from within.

The changes which happen on the world and also will happen further until it is completed, can only be done by the mankind as such which confesses to God, confesses to love, confesses to omnipotence, confesses to the original source, however you would like to name it, to the origin of the love. To the humanity, to the gentleness, to joy, to happiness, to gratitude, to humility and above all to the humanity.

This awakening can only happen when the ego becomes smaller and the soul increases in greatness. For this, of course, it is necessary that you also allow it. That the soul increases in greatness can only happen through love. Love controls the channel - for everything. And as we also explained before, it is necessary that the awakening comes from the inside to the outside, like a chick that has to break through the shell to be able to live. Help from outside would destroy the life inside.

Beloved children. This path is taken and you were born to take this path!

The lies and untruths, the deceptions you see in news and television, which you perceive or take note of and partly still believe, means that you are still caught in the illusion.

This in turn means that your ego is much stronger than your soul. The ego can be manipulated - the soul cannot. The soul cannot be manipulated because it is of Divine origin. The darkness uses manipulation, the Divine Power never.

Beloved children. What is happening at the moment can be called "clean-up" on a larger scale. On the battles "light against darkness", but in the certainty that the light has already won. In spite of everything, all layers of darkness must be cleared out in order to complete the ascension.

Have faith! Have faith that the processes are going the way they are going and are going for the best of humanity. Have faith that the Divine Omnipotence does not really abandon any soul that is devoted to Her. And still reaches out to everyone, even if he has turned away.

The entities which are not ensouled have no Divine origin, and therefore God could never reach them. They are transformed in the light of the love. The existence as they know it will end by it. This brings, so to speak, their death struggle ahead. That means: Beings, which know nothing else than wickedness, as unsouledness, are afraid to lose their existence in any form. Especially because they can never exist in the light of the Divine Omnipotence.

These struggles take place naturally and meanwhile you see them also in the outside. And we would like to invite you today to go inside and check what is true and what is not true. You can only find out truth by looking into the issues and not believing everything you are told. Like the chick that sets itself free, each of you must search for the truth yourself. Only those who search for the truth themselves will have the certainty that they can feel it.

Law, order and love will bring the breakthrough in all areas. There will be GOD's justice, there will be the change. The process is in the course and can be stopped no more, but be sure that the darkness has planned this over many, many centuries or has orchestrated or has already also done, but that now mankind has grown together in such a way that GOD has received the permission, so to speak, to be able to intervene. And this will happen! It happens every day a piece more.

Be prepared to create your personal vision of the Golden Age. Be prepared to see the humanity in the other. Be prepared to create and live in a new world. Most people know what they don't want, but very few know what they do want. Therefore, you need visions.

Through the wake-up call that is being sent from the universe to every cell, so to speak, as we have already explained, your abilities will change very much. This means that you will be able to channel yourself. Be it your Higher Self, be it your angels or companions, be it us Archangels. You will be able to get any help that you need, through which every soul is directly connected to the Divine Source through the Higher Self. Rely on the fact that the light also plans for many years or decades to take up this fight and to end this time once and for all. The support of God is certain to you in this regard. Therefore have confidence and consider: Why certain things happen, as they happen? Simply to prevent still more evil.

It is a special time. It is a very nerve-wracking time. It is a very unjust time. But the more souls rise up, going into their own power, the more the darkness will give way. To stop going along, to say "No!", to say "Stop!", to be sovereign, to go into your own power and set boundaries: This is the task of every single soul. Not to scold with oneself because it is not yet so successful, but to go into the acceptance that it is the actual greatness that wants to be lived. Free from ego. And we're not just talking about thinking.

The ego structure is ultimately the structure that is created by excessive thinking and gets a part of self-consciousness and is very, very receptive to the darkness. We are not talking about the thoughts that you create in order to make decisions, but we are talking about the worries and worries that you constantly repeat in your thoughts as if in hypnosis, the head stories that you tell yourself, when in fact you can feel what the truth is. A mother knows if she is being lied to by her child. You can feel the truth. And what if what is happening now, the battles that are happening in the world now, are really meant to eradicate the darkness? To protect humanity so that even worse weapons cannot be used, but ultimately so that paradise on earth can finally come, so that the earth can be liberated?

And this liberation has now also begun physically. Have faith! Feel into it! You will recognize the people, the luminous leaders, by their actions. Who acts with honor? Who acts with decency? Who tries not to panic? Who tries to make treaties and agreements? And who does not do so? Check carefully what you hear in the news or in any other media. Either you do your research - and if you have done your research, it might be a good idea to do some soul searching about what is true. To believe blindly is not the goal here, but the awakening.

So be patient with your body, be patient with the process. And we know that you are suffering. But to say "No!", the awakening from within, to break through the shell of limitation that surrounds you and to go into a new life, that is your task! And all who do this go to 5D, to the Golden Age. And also many of others, because it is not matter or indifferent, when man becomes awake. The main thing is that he wakes up.

Beloved children. We love you with every fiber of our being. We are by your side because the Divine Omnipotence has made sure that you get support. Call us, we will help you, we will support you. This is our task. Do not think that you are too small. You are the ones who have incarnated, who have taken the harder part - we have the easier part. But you who are here have chosen to do this ascension. You are so much greater than you believe.

You are so much greater than you think. You are a beloved child of Divine Source. You have so many talents, so many gifts, so much strength, so much humanity and so much compassion within you that you will be able to let this flow outward. And like a net, this spans from human to human, from soul to soul across the entire planet.

That which was unthinkable two years ago, that humanity actually unites across many countries, that race and origin, faith or anything else is no longer so important, but the commonality of standing up for the light, for togetherness, for love, for the children. Especially for the children! This is what unites humanity more and more, connects souls more and more, and brings the power and the strength to liberate not only the planet, but every single soul that walks on it. The animal world that supports you, the nature beings of all kinds that want to support you.

Transform love into pure Divine love! For that is the origin of love. And you will transform any form of darkness. But ego structures discuss. The heart and love understands - and transforms. In the light of a fully blossomed soul darkness cannot exist! It cannot even come close.

You are light! You are love! You are the grandest expression of Divine Omnipotence! You carry the knowledge of the entire universe within you. You are an adventurer, because you have decided to incarnate in this time and to realize God's plan. And exactly this you do. From the soul, from the heart.

Beloved child. Do not give up!

The beauty of the world is yet to come. And we are by your side. Every step, when you invite us. You are never alone. For you are infinitely loved.

We bless you in the light of Divine Omnipotence, now and always, and so be it."
