

Transliteration of the Channeling "Annual Message 2024" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on December 21, 2023

""Bless you, beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. We have been asked today to give you the annual message for the new year, which of course we are happy to do.

Beloved children. First of all, the physical situations of many people are currently intense, both in the tissue area and in the neck, muscles, joints - ultimately no cell in the body remains unscathed by the fact that the transformation process is increasing with each passing day. The light is now coming back. It is getting stronger, more intense. The new era brings many changes, including to the physical structure. In order to protect our channel, we would like to point out once again that if you have any major problems, please consult a doctor or alternative practitioner.

Beloved children in the light. What is in store for you in these exciting, thrilling times? Many things. Ultimately, the pressure, the eye of the needle, the bottleneck, whatever you want to call it, through which humanity is now being squeezed, will become more and more, smaller and smaller, narrower and narrower, more and more intense. But the good comes at the end!

Beloved children. What is currently most important for you, for each of you? It is of great significance and of great importance for each of you to go within yourselves. The time of living on the outside: "Who is more beautiful, taller, slimmer, younger, richer?", these times are over. Whoever still identifies with what they can supposedly do or what they supposedly do or how they supposedly look or how much money they have in their bank account: that is history.

The new year is a year of 8. This means that the lowest is turned upwards, the highest downwards. It is the sign of infinity. It is the sign of reconnection. Ultimately, it is also the sign of total, intense upheaval, especially at this time.

Do not be afraid! Even if the darkness tries everything, there will be no more great war. You don't need to be afraid of nuclear bombs or anything else. Be free and stay in your heart. Liberate yourselves from within!

Beloved children. Nothing is currently more important than taking care of your own thought structures (mindset), taking care of your contact with your soul, discovering the power and strength within yourselves and letting it shine outwards.

You wash yourselves, you apply cream, you anoint yourselves, you apply make-up, you make yourselves pretty for the outside world. But what does it look like on the inside, or rather in your auric field? As we have already said, everything in the universe is characterized by frequencies. What you emit is what you attract. And why send out something lower when the highest vibration in the universe is love and can manifest the most beautiful things?

Living in the here and now, being mindful in the now is what helps you to go through these bumpy times most easily. People are waking up, by the millions, more and more every day. On the one hand, because more and more truths - the lowest is being turned upwards - are being brought into the world, but also because now is the time when the soul is trying more and more to gain strength, power and authority, or rather, to live in its own strength and authority what it actually is: pure energy, created by the Creator, which sends itself out into the whole world and thereby more or less shapes and creates people.

Beloved children. The time will come, and with each passing day more and more people will become clairvoyant, clairaudient, clairsentient, clairsmelling, even among the awakened people. The time will come when it is completely independent of what you say, but what you think or feel, the frequency, will be perceived more and more.

The lie will disappear. There can be no more lies when you can read each other, when you can perceive each other on all levels. Imagine a world in which you can be who you want to be, comparable to a good relationship or marriage or even a deep friendship. When the other person can read you completely, knows your greatest shadows, the greatest condemnations that you say or think about them, the greatest contempt, taking advantage, whatever, and they are still by your side because they know your soul. That is unconditionality, that is acceptance at the highest level. If you can muster this, mutually - and that will come, even if it may take some time - but of course this can cause long-standing friendships to fall apart.

That certain things simply restructure themselves in you, around you, in such a way that you simply no longer feel like wasting time with people who take advantage of you, who live on your energy, who are not prepared to do anything themselves. Sometimes you need time for yourself. Sometimes it means feeling into yourself, listening to yourself, noticing the change, becoming aware of it, living it - allowing the joy in your heart. That is exactly what is happening.

More and more people are not only waking up to the lies that are in the world - and truly, we tell you: there are many more lies than you can even imagine. Even among those who have woken up, who know a lot, who have worked out a lot, who have researched a lot, there will still be one or two gigantic surprises.

Beloved children in the light. Do not be afraid! If you do not plan for the future and do not imagine how bad everything could become, but instead focus on creating paradise on earth, it will be so! You are very protected here.

Humanity has been through so much and everyone who asks for help gets it! Try to be free from worries. We know it is easier said than done for you. But the soul knows no worry. The soul only knows the hunger for adventure. And this adventure, what you are experiencing now, for which you have declared your willingness and for which you wanted to give everything to bring back love, kindness, humanity, to transform the darkness, that is what you were born for, that is what you are here for!

Beloved children in the light. The next few months will be very bumpy in that the anger, the despair of some people will become greater and greater. Reach out to each other. Turn inwards, clear your shadows, bring them into the light, transform them and be open. Reach out to all people. No matter what they have done to you or are still doing to you, no matter what happened. This does not mean that you should forget. It only means: forgive. Forgiving is the highest form of letting go. Hate and anger and resentment only destroys the one who creates it. It is only food for the darkness. It does not mean that there will be no justice. There will be justice on all levels and ultimately GOD's justice. Entities that are not truly ensouled will disappear more and more. This is not all happening this year, but it is beginning now, to an extent that you cannot imagine, it has already begun.

The light that comes back, if you pay close attention to it - should a little light shine through in the sprayed-over sky, a little sun come through - you will notice that the light is softer, more powerful too, but no longer so glaring, but simply more beneficial, warmer, more caressing, and this will increase. Pay attention to what you dream in the near future, it can give you good clues about what is coming up in your life. You know the Raunächte, which actually begin today with the winter solstice.

Beloved children. Even if the dates and numbers and everything are not quite right, you are now celebrating the festival of love and light for those who believe in it. The darkness will use this to carry out its hideous and ghastly rituals. Free yourselves from what others do. Celebrate the light, the love and the life, the pure being. Celebrate your families, your friends, those closest to you. Stay in this power and this strength.

There will be no civil war. Even if many people stand up now, show their faces and no longer put up with what has happened recently. This will increase. People will cry out more and more for the government to change, they will take to the streets more and more and they will no longer mince their words. You are witnessing the demolition of a sham world, a sham democracy, a sham that never existed, at least not for the last hundred years or more. You are experiencing the demolition, but rest assured that the good, light-filled forces in the background are already building something new. You will not fall into the abyss, even if you are on the brink of it. You will enter a new time, an era of light and love.

What does it mean in detail now? People are still trying to keep people down by making certain things scarce. Be prepared, have certain things at home so that you may not have to leave the house for a while. But the next few months will bring an upheaval that is contagious, in every country, not just in your country, but in every other country far away, and it has already begun.

The power and strength inherent in each individual soul is so immeasurable, as it is directly connected to the Divine Source through the Divine Spark, that any time you ask for it, you will get the help you want. Free from fear, trusting in God, that is what is being called for now.

The rioters will disappear more and more, even if this still takes some time, but it will begin this year.

The beings who despise, hate and want to eradicate human beings, the human condition, will disappear more and more. You are truly entering a special time.

The slowest timeline is still active, which means that it is as slow as necessary and as gentle as possible to get through this time. And know that new things are already being built in the background.

Try to be supportive. If you see old people who can no longer afford to eat, support them as much as you can. Reach out to everyone. Even those who have hurt you the most. Do not forget, but forgive.

For the time being, it is essential - and we choose this word carefully - that you start to use your powers. Thought structures will not be useful, they will not help you. Vibrational frequency is the only thing that can really help you. And the highest vibrational frequencies are emitted from the heart: love.

Try to stay in the eagle's perspective. Really try to look at what is happening outside and if you find that it is too turbulent, you should avoid the big cities. Go into the forest, retreat, go into your own little world and don't let yourself be stirred up. It's really about releasing the power of your soul now.

If everyone knows everything about everyone else, what else do you need to hide? Even though it may sound terrible to you, know that this time of truth will flush out ALL truths.

Anything you can clear up, clear it up! Talk to your friends, to your loved ones, to your families. Whatever needs to be resolved, resolve it. Build cohesion, unity, so that these times will pass for you as quickly or as easily as possible. But this time is necessary to tease out the strength of each individual.

There is a moment when everyone says "Stop!". Even the most good-natured, the most patient. When they take a step back, withdraw, gather their own strength and then move forward with clarity. And this time has now come for each of you. As we said, the outside is completely unimportant. It doesn't matter how good you smell if your auric field, your energy is full of dirt, full of darkness. People will turn towards each other, those who have the same vibrational frequency. Everything else will separate.

Beloved children. This new time that is coming - and you may also find that the pets are seeking more connection with you, that they want to support you but also feel that your soul is more present and they truly welcome that - love is the key. It is the beginning and the end, love. The power and strength of each human being is so immeasurable, and when several join together in the name of GOD, the world is literally, in the most positive sense of the word, unhinged and reorganized. And this time has now come.

Try to stay away from the scary news. Try to spend as little time on the computer as possible. Try to play as few games as possible, computer games or otherwise. All of this is just programming to keep you small and unconscious. The more you go into nature, when it awakens again, you will realize that it is a completely different power and a completely different strength.

The forces of light - and by that we also mean the earthly forces of light - are working very hard to make this path as easy and as safe as possible for each and every one of you. Pay attention to this. Pray for them. Many have sacrificed much to make this time easy for others. Honor it. Give thanks. Feel it. And send light and love to these people, to these light-filled beings who have gone through many, many things that you cannot even imagine, who have seen atrocities that are far from your imagination, and sadly that too will come to light because only the truth can bring the stability in people to accept what was and to know that it must never happen again. This change is now going through the whole world.

Again the message, the dispatch: Fear not!

Beloved child. Truly, we say to you: Your time to live is NOW!

Your time to give thanks is NOW!

Your time to love is NOW!

Your power and your strength, your energy drives this process forward.

The more light and love you put into it, the faster and easier it happens. The more truthful you are to yourself and to others, the clearer and easier the process will become. What humanity lacked most was truth and authenticity. And this is now being reborn in each of you, and that is what it is all about.

The earth is stretching, shaking, but it is free and it is healing. And she is also trying to make it as little bad as possible, to be as gentle as she can. But what was in the darkness is now coming to light.

The change: the party system will be history. It's about electing representatives who are also accountable for what they do. It's about accepting that everyone can bear a share of the responsibility and not just thinking "Oh, they'll know what they're doing", but really taking personal responsibility and setting certain limits and saying "Stop! This far and no further!". And this is happening worldwide!

Beloved children in the light. The year of 8 is also always a year of money. Whenever the 8 falls, 2008: the economic crisis, the home-made one, it naturally also means that there will be financial upheavals. There will be greater inflation. But you are provided with the essentials. You have food and drink at home, and the larger purchases can wait until it is cheaper again, and that will come, that will come too. Not immediately this year, but you will receive support from the light-filled forces around you and also from the good and honest people who are already working in the background to build the new.

Be free from worry! Live! Focus inwards, find the love and strength of your soul within you and you will always be in a good mood and you will walk through this new adventure full of joy.

At the end of this year, the new year, the world will no longer be the same. It will be more positive, it will be different.

Free yourself from the thought that you have to hide something because you are not good enough - it will be read by most people then anyway, or that too. Be authentic, be real. The falseness, the false idols, the false symbols, the false ideals will crumble, it will no longer be important. Not because you will miss it, you will not miss it. Because true life, real life will only just begin. And real life, with each other, in compassion, in understanding, that's what it's all about now.

Stay in your power, in your strength. Develop it! Clear your mind, your thought structures and send as much light and love into the world as possible. This not only heals the world, it also heals you!

Look at your darkest shadows. Not by going into it and re-traumatizing yourself, but by allowing it and observing it to transform the pain. Everything that is brought into the light is transformed into love.

The change is here! It no longer takes decades - until ascension is complete. Already it will take another decade, just over a decade, but nonetheless this change is being initiated NOW and you will see the momentum and the pace of events increase dramatically. But this is all happening to re-embed freedom and Divine power in people, to re-awaken them, to re-unite humanity with the Creator. This time is NOW!

And it is truly an exciting adventure for you! And you have been full of anticipation, in the truest sense of the word, like children before Christmas Eve in positive expectation of the wonderful things that are happening. And this wonderful thing is happening NOW, it starts now.

Pay attention to your needs. If people are not good for you because they cost you too much strength or energy, withdraw or turn away from them completely. Reach out to anyone who asks for help. But if the person only wants to complain and doesn't want to make any changes, then perhaps it makes sense to no longer have these people around you permanently.

The new era brings truth, equality. And it's no longer about being taller, prettier, younger, better, richer, whatever, but only about the energy of the heart. This is the new era!

Beloved child. Truly, we say to you:

Your power is infinite,

Your love is immeasurable and Your power and strength more intense than anything you can imagine.

And the greatest beauty in the world is and remains love. No matter what a person looks like, no matter how a person appears, what he has or what he does not have, in the New Era a person will be judged by how much love he can muster, how much love he can give to the world. This is the task, healing through light and love. And this is exactly what is happening now.

Be ready, be in your power, be in your strength. And do not be afraid!

The "happy ending", the dreamlike conclusion, is now beginning to unfold.

We bless you in the light of Divine omnipotence, now and always, and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
